FERNANDO VALENZUELA

born 11-1-60.

Physical & Confidence 22 (91%)
Emotional 7 (50%)
Mental 10 (39%)

He has a lot of confidence, stamina & sex drive (91%). He loves spending, luxuries & indulging himself & that includes eating.

He would care about his family & humanity. He would neglect his family to do for the "strangers" (#7 emotional). He is attracted to the unusual & to trouble (39% mental).

Fernando needs to be careful about getting involved with people & things that will bring him trouble. He is not afraid of trouble (91% confidence). He could get in with companions who will bring him trouble. He has already listened to someone & tried getting more money when it was against the rules. He does not like to follow rules (39% mental). Tell him to do something and he wants to do the opposite.

Fernando needs a lot of money & will spend as fast as he can (91% physical). Being a humanitarian (#7 emotional), he could give a lot of it away. He will see his family at home is taken care of.

He needs to be careful about letting someone who is not all that honest take care of his money & affairs. He could trust the dishonest ones more than the honest ones. By trusting the dishonest one that will bring him some of the trouble he seems to seek.

HOMELIFE KILLING YOU?

Did you marry because you were lonely, were having a tough time making ends meet, were not happy living with your parents, because you wanted to marry, because s/he was good looking, because others thought s/he was nice, because you thought this would be your last chance? Whatever the reason, do you laugh with one another? I mean really laugh. Is this persons sense of humor like yours? If it is, you could be emotionally compatible. That is the love.

If you do not think the other person is funny, if you think their humor is a bit sadistic, if they like to tease & you think that is cruel then you are in a no love marriage.

Do you know or remember how wonderful it is to laugh your head off with someone? To have the person come into the room & say "Hi" and you start laughing. "Don't laugh at my jokes too much, people will say we are in love." This is love.

If you marry someone you do not think is funny, you cannot give the other their kind of love, the kind of love one needs to stay healthy & happy.

If you are sickly, chances you are living with the wrong person (people). "You make me sick" is not just an expression neither is "I'll make this work if it kills me" nor "You're a pain." If you feel that way about your mate, you made an error in judgement when you decided to marry & need to give yourself permission to get out. You can pretty much find out what or who is wrong in your life by the expressions you use.

Getting sick is your minds/emotions way of telling you something is wrong with your lifestyle. It could be your job or your home life (marriage) that is making you sick or fat or depressed, etc. It could be the lack of love that is making you do these things to yourself. When you get sick you surround yourself with paid people (doctors, etc.) to give you so called love. You eat to give to yourself but over eating is not love. You learned eating was love when as a child your parents rewarded you with food. You get depressed & climb into yourself because you do not like where you are.

You need to look to see why you are doing these things to yourself. Yes, you are doing it. someone is not doing it to you. You need to look & change what is causing this.

The lack of love can also be in your parents home. You might not be emotionally compatible with them. Children are told they are loved by their parents no matter what, but it might not be the childs kind of love. The child (& parent) knows something is lacking & keeps trying to get that elusive something (love) from their parents even tho it is not possible. They will go so far as marrying someone like their parents to please them. That will ensure the continuation of the feeling of "starving to death" from the lack of love. Another expression & also true.

If you do not think someone is funny, do not let that person choose a mate for you. They will pick someone they like, not someone who is right for you.

Marry someone who makes you feel joyous not one you want to make over. That is throwing your life away. While you are in this no love marriage, Ms. or Mr. Right might come along & you will be too miserable to notice.

BATTLE OF THE WITS

Pregnant Princess Diana is going to do things to irritate Queen Elizabeth. The Queen told her to wait a few years before getting pregnant. Diana did it almost right away. This is the way things will go folks. The Queen will talk and Diana will do the opposite.

PERSONAL BIORHYTHM NUMBERS

		Physical	Emotional	Mental
Queen Elizabeth	4-21-26	8 (30%)	20 (43%)	17 (3%)
Princess Diana	7-1-61	10 (13%)	17 (21%)	32 (94%)

Together they are: 83% physically compatible
79% emotionally " "
9% mentally " "

Their confidence & physical energies are very much alike (83% physically compatible). It is a good thing they are royalty because housework & waiting on others is not for them. Their confidence level is low (30% & 13% physical). Diana would have learned to cover that up. The Queen would have gained confidence over the years.

They both are natural children who need more attention than the average & will do anything to get it. They love having people look at them. Show business or royalty is a good place for them. They would love one another (79% emotionally compatible) but like natural children would get jealous if one got more attention than the other. When Diana lets photographers take pictures of her pregnant body in a bikini. The Queen has to make a fuss in order to not be neglected herself. The 2 natural children will battle it out.

These two women are very much alike in the physical and emotional but are worlds apart in their thinking & logic. They can not hear what the other says. It is distorted. They hear simple surface talk but not heavier problem type talk. It gets scrambled.

Queen Elizabeth is sensitive, stubborn & sure she is right ALL the time (3% mental). She sees the details of something but not the overall picture. Diana needs to be in control ALL the time (94% mental). Elizabeth does not want to be controlled by anyone. So, they will battle this out. Never really hearing what the other is saying or meaning. The two women are only 9% mentally compatible.

Prince Charles is 58% mentally compatible with his mother. They can hear one another if they listen with both ears. Charles is 51% mentally compatible with his wife, Diana. They also have to listen hard. Charles can act as an intermediary. The Queen can say what she wants. Then Charles can say to Diana "This is what she means." He can help clear up some of the misunderstandings.

You can clear up misunderstandings of your own by ordering a compatibility or Do-It-Yourself Biorhythm Compatibilities and Character Analysis. See order form page 3.

FASHION HARASSMENT

There are people who naturally have a lot of energy. They like to spend & enjoy fashion. There are those who lack energy. They wear clothes because they have to. They would rather save than spend money on anything as frivolous as clothes. They do not have enough energy to spend their time on clothes. Because they are forced to conform to the dress code of society, they use up so much energy worrying about & dressing like they "should". When they are young they are intimidated into wearing the latest fashion.

These low energy people do not usually become successful until after 40. They are the late bloomers. If they did not have to use so much energy on dressing "right" they could have spent it on something more important to them. They have only so much energy & when they get older & smarter they have to decide what is more important, keeping in the latest fashion or doing what is right for them.

I do not believe it is any accident the older people are not as fashionable as the young ones. With age comes wisdom (in a lot of cases) & fashion is almost put in its proper place. I say almost because if it was put in its proper place us, or is it we, low energy people would look like bums. As it is some of us dress like that at home but not in public.

Women are so against sexual harassment but they think fashion harassment is alright because fashion is fun to some. It is fun to the high energy, confident woman.

Some men think sexual harassment is fun too. It is fun to the low confident man who needs power.

Fashion harassment is more prevalent than sexual harassment. The women need to stop their fashion harassment of other women if they expect men to stop their sexual harassment of women. How can we expect men to show respect for women when women don't show respect for each other.

I can hear some say "Oh, but this is different." Harassment is harassment and unpleasant to those being harassed.

NATURAL LONERS

You men who are natural loners (all ages). We need you in PEN PALS. You are not natural joiners but let yourselves be just this once.

DR. JOYCE BROTHERS (born 10-20-28)

Dr. Brothers has been writing how men are different from women. My research shows the differences are taught not natural.

Dr. Brothers is a psychologist. She wanted to become a psychiatrist but did not because she did not want to have a profession equal to or greater than her husbands. That is the way women were taught. Now she would like to get her M.D.

Dr. Brothers comes on very soft because she lacks confidence (30%). She is a romantic & would like to believe men are different. Believing that is romantic.

Her home & family are very important to her (#3 emotional). She needs to lead or control but not in a heavy way (70% mental).

You can order your own character analysis or get the Learn Biorhythm Character Analysis and do everyone you know or don't know. See order form page 3.

WARREN BEATTY

When a person has extremes to their personality like Warren Beatty does (low physical, high emotional, low mental percentage), life is very difficult for them. There is a lot of havoc going on inside him. He has to learn to cope with himself & with society too.
Born 3-30-37

physical & confidence 14 (22%)
Emotional 0 (100%)
Mental 14 (15%)

The women like him because he is a romantic & not ashamed of it (22%). He cares about people & things (#0 emo.) He could be a loner or could live with a lot of people. He is very emotional (100%) & needs more cuddling than sex. He is a martyr who is attracted to the unusual & to trouble. He is excellent details of some the overall picture.

When Beatty produced, wrote, directed & starred in his movie REDS he made the womens movement unhappy. He is not a male chauvanist (15% mental) but he is a romantic. He wants to think of women as soft creatures. That is why he did not make Louise Bryant (Diane Keaton) as strong as she was. Louise was a radical feminist anarchist long before she met Reed (Beatty). Beatty downplayed Bryant.

Beatty is a natural pleaser. This coupled with being a romantic & having trouble saying no to those who want to use him, made him play the movie in a macho way. He wanted to please the women & men. It is so exhausting for Beatty trying to please everyone.

Many movies give phoney messages of how strong a man is & how weak a woman is. They like to portray a couple running away from danger. They are holding hands & he is in the lead helping her when she stumbles. He does not stumble. Have you ever tried running holding hands, let alone when there is danger? There is no way you would be holding hands. It is that old "protect the woman" that very seldom al life, only in

Years ago Warren's sister Shirley MacLaine shocked some by saying she would like to play a love scene opposite her brother to try to find out why women are so crazy about him. Shirley cannot understand it. She is not physically or mentally compatible with him & has only a liking for him, not a love. The love scene would not do it.

It is said Warren only produces movies for the women he wants to see.

Beatty would be happiest not being married. There would be too much of a burden to perform & please all the time.
